

lock down ACT UP!

Lockdown Act Up! Festival

An online festival for schools in poetry and drama monologues

You are invited you to join us in working together on local, online festival to support and celebrate students' knowledge and skills in performance work. Delivering drama monologues and performance poetry with age range categories from Primary KS2 to Secondary KS5.

- A community of practice through 3 online teacher networks
- Teacher CPD in performance poetry and delivering drama monologues
- Partnerships with local arts organisations and theatre venues
- Sharing good practice, resources and ways to engage students
- Providing a digital platform to celebrate student's work in May 2021.
- No entry fees!

Happy New Year! We want to have something to look forward and give our students a chance to have a meaningful, supportive platform to share their performance work.
